Answer the following questions in about 150 words.

Draw character sketches for Suzanne and Eleanor.

The theme of this story is betrayal and deception. Eleanor is a false friend who is her friend Suzanne's confidante in the bank.

① Character sketch of Suzanne :-

There is a dense that Suzanne is thinking only of herself when she is talking to Eleanor about her birthday. She knows that Bertram is a wealthy man and so when she is looking for a expensive present, a for the fact that Bertram is only a distant cousin, she does not import that Suzanne is only a distant cousin. She is that she is not the Suzanne. What matters to her is that she gets for this is Suzanne's first and only priority. What may be also be important in the story is the fact that Suzanne is focused on appearance. She likes Bertram not because he might be a relative but because he is wealthy. Similarly, the fact that Suzanne has a deep to David who are wearing for it would seem to be a case that appearance is everything to Suzanne. She wants to be seen as something that she really isn't. Suzanne is selfish. She does not help her friend Eleanor out. At all stages of the story, Suzanne thinks only of herself.

Character sketch of Eleanor :-

Eleanor seems to be the true friend she agrees to meet with Suzanne's cousin Suzanne's Cousin Bertam she shares with him what Suzanne desires for her birthday Bertam what Suzanne id wealthy. Eleanor agrees to tell Bertam what Suzanne desires for her birthday Eleanor is a true friend in every sense of the word.
